PRESS RELEASE

District Attorney Dee Bates was advised of a complaint filed by D'Monterrio Gibson, in which Mr. Gibson stated that a man had fired a firearm at him while he was making deliveries for Fed Ex in Brookhaven, Lincoln County, Mississippi. The District Attorney is aware that this case is being investigated by law enforcement and that two individuals have been charged with Aggravated Assault and Conspiracy to commit Aggravated Assault in connection with this case. In Mississippi, once cases are investigated and charges filed by the appropriate law enforcement agency, they are presented to the municipal court in which the crime is alleged to have occurred. If the municipal court determines there is probable cause to believe the defendant committed a felony offense, it is then bound over to the District Attorney for presentation to a Grand Jury. Any case referred to the District Attorney will be presented to the Grand Jury of the appropriate county to seek an indictment. Other than the above information, this office can not comment on the complaint filed by Mr. Gibson, or any other case while the investigation is ongoing.

Dee Bates,
District Attorney

State of Mississippi
