Nancy I asked the college for an update on what is owed as of today and it's 1,070,000. It's not due right now. And we almost have the final plans for beach. They look great. Of course you can help out again. And regardless I owe you big time. 😊

Hey Brett. That amount is not too bad. We will see what we can do hopefully after July 1. I can't wait to hear about the plans for the beach. Keep me posted.
