(e) Upon a finding by the court that both of the parents of the child have abandoned or deserted such child or that both such parents are mentally, morally or otherwise unfit to rear and train the child the court may award physical and legal custody to:

(i) The person in whose home the child has beenliving in a wholesome and stable environment; or

36 (2) * * * (a) There shall be a presumption, rebuttable by a
37 preponderance of evidence, that joint custody and equally shared
38 parenting time is in the best interest of the child. If the court
39 does not grant joint custody and/or equally shared parenting time,
40 the court shall construct a parenting time schedule which

41 maximizes the time each parent has with the child and ensuring the 42 best interest of the child is met.

46 (* * *3) (a) For the purposes of this section, "joint 47 custody" means joint physical and legal custody.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "physical custody" means those periods of time in which a child resides with or is under the care and supervision of one (1) of the parents.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "joint physical custody" means that each of the parents shall have significant periods of physical custody. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a way so as to assure a child * * * equal, frequent and continuing contact with both parents.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "legal custody" means the decision-making rights, the responsibilities and the authority relating to the health, education and welfare of a child.

60 For the purposes of this section, "joint legal (e) 61 custody" means that the parents or parties share the 62 decision-making rights, the responsibilities and the authority relating to the health, education and welfare of a child. 63 An 64 award of joint legal custody obligates the parties to equally 65 share parenting time, to exchange information concerning the 66 health, education and welfare of the minor child, and to confer 67 with one another in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities and authority. 68

An award of joint physical and legal custody obligates the parties to exchange information concerning the health, education

H. B. No. 783 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 24/HR31/R944 PAGE 3 (GT\JAB) and welfare of the minor child, and unless allocated, apportioned or decreed, the parents or parties shall confer with one another in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities and authority.

75 (* * * 4) Any order for joint custody may be modified or 76 terminated upon the petition of both parents or upon the petition 77 of one (1) parent showing that a material change in circumstances 78 has occurred.

79 (* * *5) There shall be no presumption that it is in the 80 best interest of a child that a mother be awarded either legal or 81 physical custody.

82 (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, access 83 to records and information pertaining to a minor child, including, 84 but not limited to, medical, dental and school records, shall not 85 be denied to a parent because the parent is not the child's 86 custodial parent.

87 (* * *7) (a) (i) In every proceeding where the custody of a child is in dispute, there shall be a rebuttable presumption 88 89 that it is detrimental to the child and not in the best interest 90 of the child to be placed in sole custody, joint legal custody or 91 joint physical custody of a parent who has a history of 92 perpetrating family violence. The court may find a history of 93 perpetrating family violence if the court finds, by a 94 preponderance of the evidence, one (1) incident of family violence that has resulted in serious bodily injury to, or a pattern of 95

H. B. No. 783 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 24/HR31/R944 PAGE 4 (GT\JAB) 96 family violence against, the party making the allegation or a 97 family household member of either party. The court shall make 98 written findings to document how and why the presumption was or 99 was not triggered.

100 (ii) This presumption may only be rebutted by a101 preponderance of the evidence.

102 (iii) In determining whether the presumption set 103 forth in this subsection * * * has been overcome, the court shall 104 consider all of the following factors:

105 1. Whether the perpetrator of family violence 106 has demonstrated that giving sole or joint physical or legal 107 custody of a child to the perpetrator is in the best interest of 108 the child because of the other parent's absence, mental illness, 109 substance abuse or such other circumstances which affect the best 110 interest of the child or children;

111 2. Whether the perpetrator has successfully112 completed a batterer's treatment program;

3. Whether the perpetrator has successfully completed a program of alcohol or drug abuse counseling if the court determines that counseling is appropriate;

4. Whether the perpetrator has successfully completed a parenting class if the court determines the class to be appropriate;

119 5. If the perpetrator is on probation or120 parole, whether he or she is restrained by a protective order

H. B. No. 783 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 24/HR31/R944 PAGE 5 (GT\JAB) 121 granted after a hearing, and whether he or she has complied with 122 its terms and conditions; and 123 6. Whether the perpetrator of domestic124 violence has committed any further acts of domestic violence.

125 (iv) The court shall make written findings to126 document how and why the presumption was or was not rebutted.

(b) (i) If custody is awarded to a suitable third person, it shall not be until the natural grandparents of the child have been excluded and such person shall not allow access to a violent parent except as ordered by the court.

(ii) If the court finds that both parents have a history of perpetrating family violence, but the court finds that parental custody would be in the best interest of the child, custody may be awarded solely to the parent less likely to continue to perpetrate family violence. In such a case, the court may mandate completion of a treatment program by the custodial parent.

(c) If the court finds that the allegations of domestic violence are completely unfounded, the chancery court shall order the alleging party to pay all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the defending party in responding to such allegations.

143 (d) (i) A court may award visitation by a parent who 144 committed domestic or family violence only if the court finds that

H. B. No. 783 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 24/HR31/R944 PAGE 6 (GT\JAB) 145 adequate provision for the safety of the child and the parent who 146 is a victim of domestic or family violence can be made. 147 (ii) In a visitation order, a court may take any of the following actions: 148 149 1. Order an exchange of the child to occur in 150 a protected setting; 151 Order visitation supervised in a manner to 2. 152 be determined by the court; 153 3. Order the perpetrator of domestic or 154 family violence to attend and complete to the satisfaction of the 155 court a program of intervention for perpetrators or other 156 designated counseling as a condition of visitation; 157 4. Order the perpetrator of domestic or 158 family violence to abstain from possession or consumption of 159 alcohol or controlled substances during the visitation and for 160 twenty-four (24) hours preceding the visitation; 161 5. Order the perpetrator of domestic or family violence to pay a fee to defray the cost of supervised 162 163 visitation; 164 Prohibit overnight visitation; 6. 165 7. Require a bond from the perpetrator of 166 domestic or family violence for the return and safety of the 167 child; or 168 8. Impose any other condition that is deemed 169 necessary to provide for the safety of the child, the victim of 170 family or domestic violence, or other family or household member.

(iii) Whether or not visitation is allowed, the court may order the address of the child or the victim of family or domestic violence to be kept confidential.

(e) The court may refer but shall not order an adult who is a victim of family or domestic violence to attend counseling relating to the victim's status or behavior as a victim, individually or with the perpetrator of domestic or family violence, as a condition of receiving custody of a child or as a condition of visitation.

(f) If a court allows a family or household member to supervise visitation, the court shall establish conditions to be followed during visitation.

183 SECTION 2. Section 93-11-65, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 184 brought forward as follows:

Provided, however, that if 214 the court shall find that both parties are fit and proper persons 215 to have custody of the children, and that either party is able to 216 adequately provide for the care and maintenance of the children, the chancellor may consider the preference of a child of twelve 217

242 (3) Whenever the court has ordered a party to make periodic 243 payments for the maintenance or support of a child, but no bond, 244 sureties or other quarantee has been required to secure such 245 payments, and whenever such payments as have become due remain 246 unpaid for a period of at least thirty (30) days, the court may, 247 upon petition of the person to whom such payments are owing, or 248 such person's legal representative, enter an order requiring that 249 bond, sureties or other security be given by the person obligated 250 to make such payments, the amount and sufficiency of which shall 251 be approved by the court. The obligor shall, as in other civil 252 actions, be served with process and shall be entitled to a hearing 253 in such case.

254 When a charge of abuse or neglect of a child first (4) 255 arises in the course of a custody or maintenance action pending in 256 the chancery court pursuant to this section, the chancery court may proceed with the investigation, hearing and determination of 257 258 such abuse or neglect charge as a part of its hearing and 259 determination of the custody or maintenance issue as between the 260 parents, as provided in Section 43-21-151, notwithstanding the 261 other provisions of the Youth Court Law.
